

INDIGENOUS FORESTRY – SUSTAINABLE MANAGEMENT

Prepared jointly by the Ministry of Forestry and the New Zealand Farm Forestry Association Inc.

Published by the Ministry of Forestry, 1998. ISBN: 0-478-20041-2

Soft cover, Wiro binding, 21 cm x 15 cm, 212 pp.

A practical manual on the basic principles of sustainably managing New Zealand native forest for conservation and/or timber production. Chapter headings are: Introduction; History of Indigenous Forestry in New Zealand; The Forest Resource, Choices of Forest Management; Conservation Management; Natural Forest Management; Planted Forest Management; Legislation Applicable to Indigenous Forests; Options for Harvesting; Sustainable Forest Management Plans; Sustainable Forest Management Permits; Forest Inventory & Monitoring; Appendices; Glossary of Terms; Where to Go for Help; References; Acknowledgements.

Price $30-00

Note: All prices are in New Zealand dollars and include GST on sales within New Zealand.

Postage and Packaging Surcharge:

New Zealand – prices quoted include delivery within New Zealand

Australia – add 20% to the Subtotal or contact us for a special quotation

Rest of World – add 50% to the Subtotal or contact us for a special quotation

Order form for INDIGENOUS FORESTRY – SUSTAINABLE MANAGEMENT

To order a copy of the book send this form or a copy to NZFFA, P O Box 10349, Wellington 6143

(Phone 04 4720432 for other payments options)

Please send me _____ copies of the book INDIGENOUS FORESTRY – SUSTAINABLE MANAGEMENT

Price $30 including post and packing

Payment information:

Cheque encl. Payable to NZ Farm Forestry Association

Please debit the following card: VISA / MasterCard (circle one)

Exp. date: /

Signature: _____

Name on the card: _____ Phone: _____

Address for delivery: _____

Postcode: _____