

What is the Carbon Forestry Opportunity?

Distinction Hotel - Kauri Room, Corner of Fenton and Sala Streets
(Enter from the large carpark on the city side of the Hotel)

1.00 – 5.00 pm Thursday 28 October 2021

1.00 pm Tea & Coffee

1.30 pm Welcome and Introduction – Graham West

1.40 Participant self-introductions

1.50 What is the enthusiasm for carbon forestry? - Jeff Tombleson

2.05 What are the major issues with carbon plantations? - Graham

2.25 Quantifying the carbon - Jeff

2.45 Selling & purchasing carbon - Richard Hart

3.00 pm Afternoon tea

3.30 Returns from carbon forestry - Graham

3.45 A brief overview of registering new plantations under the ETS - Richard

4.00 The opportunity to register existing plantations on farms under the ETS - Jeff

4.15 Case study on how a family farm is addressing dairy emissions - Viv Barr

4.30 Integration of production & riparian plantings on a dairy farm - David Dysart

4.45 Overview of forthcoming carbon forestry field day - Jeff

4.50 Final discussion and Q & A – Graham

5.00 pm Close

Bay of Plenty Branch: Secretary: Viv Barr barr.aj@xtra.co.nz

Confirmation of Attendance

Please click the following email link to confirm your attendance at the Workshop

Richard Hart richard@richardhart.co.nz

If you know of farmers who would be interested in attending this workshop please invite them to attend and to register their attendance as above

Due to COVID restrictions attendance may be constrained to 50 attendees. If you confirm attendance but are then unable to attend, please advise Richard so that others may be able to attend. Please bring your mask and a colleague.

<https://g.page/distinctionhotelsrotorua?share>

